MANASI NAWATHE

CLASSICAL INDIAN DANCER

Manasi Nawathe has been learning and performing Bharatanatyam for nearly 20 years. She completed her Arangetram (solo stage debut) in 2014 under the guidance of Guru Lakshmi Raghavan at the Perna School of Dance in Yardley, PA. Manasi is currently a student of Guru Deepthi Mukund-Navile at the Natyabhoomi School of Dance, an institution rooted in the rich Mysore style of Bharatanatyam. Through Natyabhoomi, Manasi has performed at various festivals and fundraising events, collaborated with senior artists, and recently performed the leading role in a stage production based on Kalidasa's Abhignyana Shakunthalam. By profession, Manasi is a Scientist at a BioPharmaceutical company in Rockville, MD.

GIVE BACK AT OUR 2026 BENEFIT GALA

Join us for an unforgettable evening of music and community spirit at Hope In Harmony's 2nd Annual Benefit Gala. This special night brings together friends, families, and supporters to celebrate the power of music and raise funds for our mission to INSPIRE HOPE in the Southern Maryland community and beyond.

What to Expect

- Dinner & Cash Bar – Enjoy a delicious meal and toast to a night of giving back.
- Silent Auction – Bid on unique items and experiences, with all proceeds supporting Hope In Harmony.
- 50/50 Raffle – Try your luck while making an impact.
- Live Entertainment – Be inspired by incredible performances that showcase the joy and unity music brings.

Semi-Formal Attire - Feel free to embrace your style while keeping it dressy, classy, and festive! Formal black-tie attire isn't required—but if that's your vibe, we welcome it! We look forward to having you join us soon!

Scan the QR code to grab your tickets, become a sponsor, or donate to our silent auction.
